PROJECT AWARDS

About the awards

The project awards celebrate the success of Australia and New Zealand's infrastructure projects, across eight categories. To qualify, the project must be an Australian or New Zealand project completed (or partially completed) in 2018.

Application

What you'll need

- Official project name and details, including: procurement, delivery and budgeting information
- List of project participants, including: proponents and consortia parties, clients, financial advisers, legal advisers, financiers, other advisers, contractors/constructors
- Three images of the project

Nomination process

Step 1.

Select nomination category/categories

Select your category or categories. A project can be nominated for multiple award categories within the same nomination form.

Step 2.

Who contributed to the project and in what way?

List all the participants involved in the delivery of the project. The judging panel will determine which organisation(s) will be recognised depending on their role and involvement in the project. Please note that not all participants in awarded projects will be acknowledged depending on the category.

Step 3.

Project background and details

Fill in basic information about the project, including: status, timelines and costs of the project.

Step 4.

Tell us why this project deserves to win

Provide further information on the innovative, unique and exceptional components of the project.

Step 5.

Short project description and images

Write a 150-word summary of the project. Attach three high quality images for each project nomination. We use this in marketing collateral featuring winners and finalists of the award.

Step 6.

Contact information for this nomination

Give the best point of contact for the nomination, a referee for the project and the best person to receive the award on the night.
