QUEENSLAND INCREASES INFRASTRUCTURE SPEND BY 21 PER CENT

Treasurer Cameron Dick has delivered a strong infrastructure budget, following several years of limited spending, says industry think tank Infrastructure Partnerships Australia.

“Treasurer Cameron Dick has increased infrastructure funding by 21 per cent or $7.7 billion on the allocation in the 2022-23 Budget, bringing total funding to $45.3 billion over the next four years.

“Infrastructure funding is now at its highest level in over a decade, with 12.9 per cent of general government expenditure allocated to the State’s infrastructure pipeline - $5.6 billion over and above the long-term average.

“It’s pleasing to see a renewed focus on infrastructure, a vital piece of the State’s economic future.

“The whole sector, public and private, will need a laser focus over the coming years to make sure this increased spending translates to diggers in the dirt,” said Infrastructure Partnerships Australia, Chief Executive Adrian Dwyer.
