WHO WE ARE

We are Australia's longest standing independent infrastructure think tank, formed in 2005 as a genuine and enduring policy partnership between Australia's governments and industry.

Our public sector members include Commonwealth, state and territory infrastructure, planning, environment, finance and treasury departments, as well as government-owned corporations.

Our private sector members include major financiers, law firms, contractors, consultants, equity and debt investors, technology producers, asset owners, operators and maintenance providers.
